

FLOWING

Coordination is the most effective means of moving through the alternatives space.

You perceive every event as positive and so always move onto a favourable branch of your life line and more frequently encounter the wave of fortune. But you must be careful not to end up with your head in the clouds, rather take conscious, intentional action that enables you to keep balance as you ride the wave of fortune.

This is the essence of Transurfing.

Did you really get the above message...every single moment of your life is to be experienced as perfect. That is the secret!

You can never experience harmony in reality if you are constantly complaining.

Ask the Inner Guardian (NEO) to take care of business and consciously relax the grip of the limited mind on all situations
