

MODULE TWO AWARE

Easy Effortless Fun

Reach all goals and objectives in life, proposed by yourself.

Easily and effortlessly attain all that you want without stress, struggle or tensions.

All this is possible if you have free energy available.

Often a person uses too much energy creating excess potentials, this is done through defending importance and feeding the pendulums.

To truly be the owner of your own destiny you need to increase free energy levels around you.

The world is like a mirror, all that happens in your life is nothing more than a reflection of what is going on inside.

When what you perceive outside does not suit you, you need to stand in between outer and inner mirrors as the observer.

You will then objectively be able to choose the reality you intend to Live.

Consciously alter your inner world and the outside world will inevitably follow.
